Parent and community engagement

There has been a strong focus on engaging parents in the life of the school and their child's learning program. Recent survey results, as well as attendance at school events have indicated significant increases in levels of parental involvement and satisfaction with the school. The following strategies reflect our commitment to involving parents in their child's education:

- Over 120 parent volunteers were recognized for providing assistance in 2017;
- Parent information and Meet the Teacher nights are hosted in Term 1;
- Yearly learning overviews are provided to parents at the beginning of each year;
- Monthly school newsletters;
- Parent attendance at weekly school assemblies is notably high;
- Parent opinion is regularly sought through a range of consultation strategies;
- Parent workshops have been provided in literacy and numeracy;
- Parents are provided with meaningful roles on sports days and at special events;
- Facebook is used to update parents on school events;
- A parent noticeboard within the school is used consistently and copies of newsletters and notices are posted regularly.
- Parents are special guests at class culminating activities and events.
- Regular communication regime has been established between parents and class teachers

Respectful relationships programs

The school has developed and implemented a Positive Behaviour for Learning program (PBL) that focuses on appropriate, respectful and healthy relationships. Underpinning all behaviour expectations is the understanding that a student cannot be expected to know and display a certain behaviour if it has not been taught to them, just in the same way they cannot be expected to know and display an academic achievement if the child has not been directly taught. It is because of this, that PBL behaviour lessons are explicitly taught to students on a weekly basis. Each Monday afternoon all classes are expected to teach the weekly focus. Teaching ideas are developed for both lower school and upper school, and distributed to classes on a term by term basis. It is the responsibility of the class teacher to work with their students on a class reward system and class rules. Teachers are then responsible for explicitly implementing the weekly behaviour focus in line with the timetable. "Catch-a-C" rewards are given out daily and 10 students are further rewarded on parade each week. The Positive Possum tiered reward system has been designed to acknowledge students who display appropriate behaviours within the school context. Theory states that students who are positively acknowledged for appropriate behaviour are more likely to repeat that positive behaviour in the future. The tiered design of the Positive Possum system aims to acknowledge the positive behaviour of all students at all levels, regardless of academic, social or behaviour support. The program acknowledges, on a daily basis, those students achieving all expectations as outlined within the PBL Expectation Matrix. At the end of each day, eligible students receive a stamp on their Possum Chart. At the end of each Semester an EPIC celebration is held for all students displaying the 4 "C's" and achieving an EPIC level.

School Disciplinary Absences

The following table shows the count of incidents for students recommended for each type of school disciplinary absence reported at the school.

SCHOOL DISCIPLINARY ABSENCES
Type	2015	2016	2017
Short Suspensions – 1 to 10 days	1	3	8
Long Suspensions – 11 to 20 days	0	0	1
Exclusions	0	0	0

Environmental Footprint

Reducing the school's environmental footprint

Regular communication reminds our school community of the importance of reducing our environmental footprint. The installation of tanks has reduced water usage over time. To reduce paper usage, the school newsletter became fully electronic in late 2013. Report cards are now produced on one A3 page as compared to up to 6 x A4 pages in the past.

ENVIRONMENTAL FOOTPRINT INDICATORS
Years	Electricity kWh	Water kL
2014-2015	131,259	4,336
2015-2016	135,723	784
2016-2017	147,536	13,829

The consumption data is compiled from sources including ERM, Ergon reports and utilities data entered into OneSchool by each school. The data provides an indication of the consumption trend in each of the utility categories which impact on the school's environmental footprint.

Non-attendance is managed in state schools in line with the Department of Education procedures, Managing Student Absences and Enforcing Enrolment and Attendance at State Schools and Roll Marking in State Schools, which outline processes for managing and recording student attendance and absenteeism.

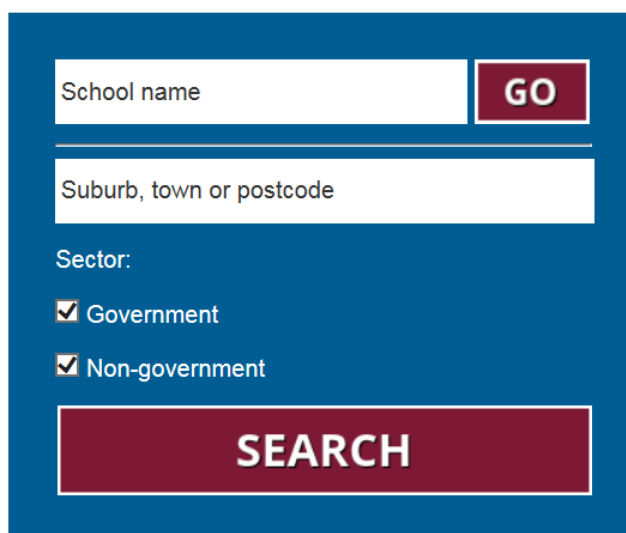

If a child is not present at first roll marking for the day, parents are contacted to find out the reason for the child's non-attendance at school on any particular day. For extended periods of unexplained absence beyond 3 days, the absence details are provided to Administration for further investigation and action following procedures outlined in SMSPR-036. Students and parents are reminded regularly that compulsory school attendance is important for successful learning. Unexplained absences are continually monitored by attendance Officer and phone calls and letters sent home to parents to gather information on these absences and records updated as appropriate.
